Guntur
district with the largest chilli area in the state

The origin

Andhra Pradesh grows about half of India's chillies. Spices Board estimates for 2023-24 put the state at 14.44 lakh tonnes out of 29.13 lakh tonnes nationally.

Guntur's chilli yard is one of the largest dried-chilli markets in Asia, and prices set there move markets well beyond India. Nizamabad in neighbouring Telangana is one of India's main turmeric markets.

Varieties and forms

Teja (S17)	Very pungent, deep red. Favoured for oleoresin and hot powders.
334 · Sannam (S4)	The classic Guntur export chilli. Balanced heat and colour.
341 and Byadgi type	Lower heat, high colour value for paprika-style use.
Turmeric	Nizamabad and Duggirala fingers and bulbs; curcumin tested per lot.

Documents with every shipment

- Spices Board quality certificate where the destination requires it
- Phytosanitary certificate and certificate of origin
- Lab report from an accredited laboratory
- Fumigation certificate for whole spices

Season

Chilli harvest January to April; cold-stored stock sells all year.

Market trend

Chilli is India's largest spice export by value, and China is the biggest buyer of Indian dried chilli. Buyers in the EU and US ask for strict limits on aflatoxin, pesticide residues and ethylene oxide, so we test every lot before shipment.

How an order works

Requirement → producer shortlist with approvals → samples and lab tests → contract and proforma invoice → production and pre-shipment inspection → bill of lading, certificate of origin and health or phytosanitary certificates. Specifications, prices and lead times are confirmed in writing for each order.
